

COVID -19 Acknowledgment and Personal Responsibility Policy

There is no higher priority of Montana DECA Inc. than the health, safety and well-being and of our members, staff, volunteers and the communities we serve. As we closely monitor the COVID-19 pandemic, we continue to make decisions with this in mind. As part of Montana DECA community we all have a responsibility to help protect each other.

According to the CDC, COVID-19 is primarily spread from person to person through respiratory droplets produced when coughing, sneezing or heavy breathing. Transmission is slowed by wearing a cloth face covering and/or maintaining a distance of at least 6 feet between people. In compliance with current CDC recommendations, local mandates and/or statewide protocol, all attendees of in person activities, meetings, conferences, gatherings and competitions sponsored by Montana DECA or when representing Montana DECA at public or school-based activities are asked to adhere to the following recommended guidelines:

- Seek medical attention, self-isolate and do not attend events if you are experiencing any of the following COVID-19 symptoms:
 - Fever (defined as a temperature greater than 100.4)
 - Shortness of breath
 - New loss of taste or smell
 - Chills, muscle pain or sore throat
 - New or worsened cough
 - Nausea, vomiting diarrhea
 - Runny nose or congestion
- Wear a cloth face covering at all times when in public areas.
- Be mindful of social distancing. Maintain a space of 6 feet between yourself and others if able.
- Wash your hands with soap regularly and frequently. If soap and water is not accessible, use hand sanitizer
- Practice proper cough and sneeze etiquette.
- If you have been in close contact with someone known to have COVID-19, self-isolate for 14 days.
- Disinfect surfaces throughout the day that are touched regularly.

Montana DECA has implemented extensive preventative measures to help reduce the spread of COVID-19. However, Montana DECA cannot guarantee that members and attendees will not be exposed or infected. Participants acknowledge the highly contagious nature of COVID-19 and voluntarily assume the risk and responsibility for exposure and infection.

I have read and understood Montana DECA's Acknowledgment and Personal Responsibility Policy and agree to adhere to the guidelines set forth. I understand that this Policy may be updated in accordance with changing CDC and local guidelines and will be updated accordingly.

MONTANA DECA PROFESSIONALISM

DRESS CODE

Professional appearance is an important aspect of the overall preparation of DECA members for the business world. To that end, DECA supports a dress code for its career-based functions that exemplifies the highest standards of professionalism while being non-discriminatory between males and females.

The Montana DECA Board of Directors has developed the following official dress standards for the State Career Development Conference. Students, advisors and chaperones must follow the conference dress code.

The following are unacceptable during any Montana DECA activities: skin-tight or revealing clothing, athletic clothing, swim-wear (unless swimming), and clothing with printing that is suggestive, obscene, or promotes illegal activities.

When judging adherence to the dress code, Montana DECA asks that advisors, teachers and chaperones use observation as the tool for assessing compliance. Montana DECA does not support or condone the touching of students or their clothing as a means of determining whether or not a student is following the dress code guidelines.

Keep in mind that our overall goal is simple: to participate online in a respectful, relevant manner that protects our reputation and of course follows the letter and spirit of the law. One way you can help to ensure this goal is to avoid being an official Montana DECA spokesperson. We have a specially trained DECA Communications and Public Relations staff who are the only authorized people to speak on Montana DECA’s behalf in online and print conversations. DECA members, including elected officials and staff that choose to participate in conversation where Montana DECA is mentioned or implied will need to adhere to the following guidelines, accurately identify themselves and their role within the organization, and the fact that the things they post are their individual opinion. These guidelines are designed to help you and Montana DECA achieve a more concise, clear, professional image. If one creates or contributes to blogs, wikis, social networks, virtual worlds, or any other kind of Social Media – Twitter, Yelp, Wikipedia, MySpace, Facebook along with thousands more in this realm where Montana DECA is mentioned or implied, here are some guiding principles for all to keep in mind and follow:

THINK BEFORE POSTING: No use of social media publication may include confidential Montana DECA material, employment documents, or information that may deem detrimental to our business partners, investors, employees, or stakeholders.

IDENTIFY YOURSELF: Remembering that you are a member of Montana DECA is very important. Whether you are an elected official, classified staff member, or student/employee director, your message can directly affect our initiatives and movements. When posting related to Montana DECA or its members you must identify yourself with the proper title and identify that it is your personal/individual opinion. Any specific comments related to a statement from Montana DECA must be made through our trained Public Relations and Communications staff.

REMEMBER YOUR WORK RESPONSIBILITIES: Do not let social media interfere with your ability to work with the student body or serve the Montana DECA organization.

DON’T MISLEAD OTHERS: Never represent yourself or Montana DECA in a misleading manner. You are solely responsible for the content you post or interact with online. Tell the truth, and don’t reference co-workers, fellow members, business partners, or other stakeholders without their expressed permission.

MEANINGFUL & RESPECTFUL COMMENTS: Stick to your experience level. Avoid harsh, misleading remarks on topics which you are not educated on. Remember your comments can directly affect and impact the professional image of all Stakeholders within Montana DECA.

LEGAL MATTERS: Never comment on anything related to legal matters. Montana DECA has highly trained legal representation and staff to comment on legal matters dealing with Montana DECA action(s) and policy. All comments made on a legal note should be done after careful consultation with Montana DECA Legal Council and Montana DECA Public Relations and Communications Staff.

BE SMART: Take a moment to review your information prior to publishing. Remember that this information is stored and will be around indefinitely. Make sure you are publishing only what you mean. Mean what you say and say what you mean. As Montana DECA elected officials, personnel, staff, and stakeholders, we strive very hard every day to uphold our professional image and unique culture.
