Dress Legendary!

Hey y'all, it's no other than Erin choose-your-dressing McHugh! I'm about to hand-craft the masterpiece of fashion for all of you know-nothing DECA members out there, of whom I was once apart of, so don't fret, just take note. ;)

So, DECA events and conferences have two different styles of dress: business casual and business professional. There are special occasions in which the different styles are appropriate. Don't worry, I know how that sounds overkill, trust me, but 'this is how the real world works' or something like that.

Here's a link to this absolutely bomb slideshow from your homegirl EC (aka Prez) which outlines the "do's" and "dont's" of DECA Dress, along with photo examples! Go check it out --
